

You want a friendly, clean, laid-back place close to the area's best trails (we're only minutes from Tsali). You want reasonable rates (we've got them). You want a place where you feel your bikes are safe (we know they're an investment). You want and need a place with lots of hot water and outdoor hoses (we've seen the mud). And when you're not speeding, skidding and sweating your way over a trail, you want a place where you can chill out and soak up nature's energy. All those things considered, we know you'll want to know us.

A LOOK AT LAKEVIEW

The most remarkable thing we can tell you about Lakeview is something you actually have to see to appreciate. Until then, picture this: you're on the porch of your cottage, feet up, surrounded by 45 acres of mountain peace and the sun is ever so slowly setting over Fontana Lake. And what's the rest of the world up to at that moment? Who cares? Lakeview is a place for the relaxed at heart and those anxious to relax. Also:

- * A community of 20 cozy cottages
- * A conference room for groups up to 50
- * Leonardo's Coffee House
- * Less than 10 minutes from Tsali
- * Minutes from the Nantahala Outdoor Center Bike shop (mountain bike rentals and repair).
- * On-property bike wash
- * Two miles from Nantahala Gorge (think white-water rafting, canoeing, kayaking, hiking, horseback riding)
- * On-property hiking trail full of pine, ash, wild flowers, berries and birdlife
- * Spring fed outdoor swimming pool
- * Charcoal grills

And the most genuinely warm welcome you'll enjoy anywhere. So try us out, we know you'll love Lakeview!
